The Markets

Chicago Grain.
Chicago, July 7.—Cool weather northwest tending to avert a spread of black rust on the wheat market today a downward slant. After opening 1/4 to 1/2 cent lower, the market continued to ascend. The close was steady, 1/2 cent off to 3/4 cent up, compared with last night.
Rain in Missouri made the corn market easy. The opening, which ranged from 1/2 cent off to a shade advance, was followed by a slight further decline. The close was firm, 1/2 cent to 3/4 cent net higher.
Buying on the part of a leading house but some firmness in oats. Provisions held steady.

LIVE WIRES WILL GO AFTER THE CONVENTION

Retail Merchants' Delegation Primed to Override Rivals in Bid for Next Year's Meeting Leave Tonight.

Primed to boost their buttons off in an effort to bring the next meeting to this city, a delegation representing the local merchants will leave for Hinton tonight on train No. 3 to attend the annual state convention of Retail Merchants. Santa Fe is after the 1915 convention and so are other towns in the state, but the Albuquerqueans are going down to make a stronger bid than their rivals and they will overlook no chance to return with the bacon.

To be Made of Two Members from Commercial Club, Women's Club, Parent-Teachers and Tuesday Club.

Two members of the Commercial club together with two members of the Women's club, of the Parent-Teachers' association, and of the Tuesday Literary club, will constitute a general committee on town improvement. They will formulate a plan for cleaning up the city, ridding it of flies and for general beautification.

Why worry when a Herald want ad will do it.
